EDITORIAL

After a break of a few months, this issue of the SIW Genealogist continues the Index to Pioneer Women of Victoria, 1856 -1860, in a revised format. I apologise for the omission in publication of this article without due notice, and I hope to continue the series to its natural conclusion without further interruption.

Please keep your eye out for any interesting notices/information, etc. which may be useful to our readers. The cut-off date for insertion in the newsletter is the Friday before meeting night.

AREA ADMINISTRATOR

Dear Members and friends,

how the year is flying by - October already and it won't be long till we hear it announced - so many days to Christmas. Believe it or not, I do have most of my Christmas shopping under control.

We had a good holiday in Queensland - rained one day while we were there. The pokies could be described as "friendly".

This month we have to say farewell to our member Barbara Eastwell who is leaving Warrnambool to live in Drouin. All the best Barbara from the Warrnambool Group.

Do not forget to read the newsletters we receive from other groups as they are full of interesting reading.

Happy researching,

Marie Boyce
Area Administrator

DID YOU KNOW?

About the Donate-a-Fiche program of the A.I.G.S. Inc? Microfilm or microfiche copies of parish records for most overseas parishes can be purchased through this program. The parish registers are paid for by you, all other associated costs are met by the A.I.G.S. The records stay in our library permanently, with exclusive use by the donor for the first month. This is a good way for us to build up our records and gives you ready access to the baptism, marriage and burial records for your overseas parish.
